WELCOME

to

UCDAVIS

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

Hi, I'm Amy Lowrey, your Academic Advisor

FUN FACTS

allowrey@ucdavis.edu

My son says it's easy to make me laugh!

My favorite food is:
Ice Cream!

I've been working on campus for 12 years and an academic advisor for 9, I love what I do!

Welcome to UC Davis, I'm excited to get to know you and help you navigate through your academics and professional career!

Sproul Hall

Located a short walk from the Quad, Memorial Union, and Shields Library, Sproul Hall is the home of Languages and Literatures where you will find:

- Chinese and Japanese
- Classics, Greek, and Latin
- Comparative Literature
- French and Italian
- German and Russian
- Religious Studies
- Spanish and Portuguese
- Humanities
- Human Rights

The Undergraduate Advising team is located on the second floor

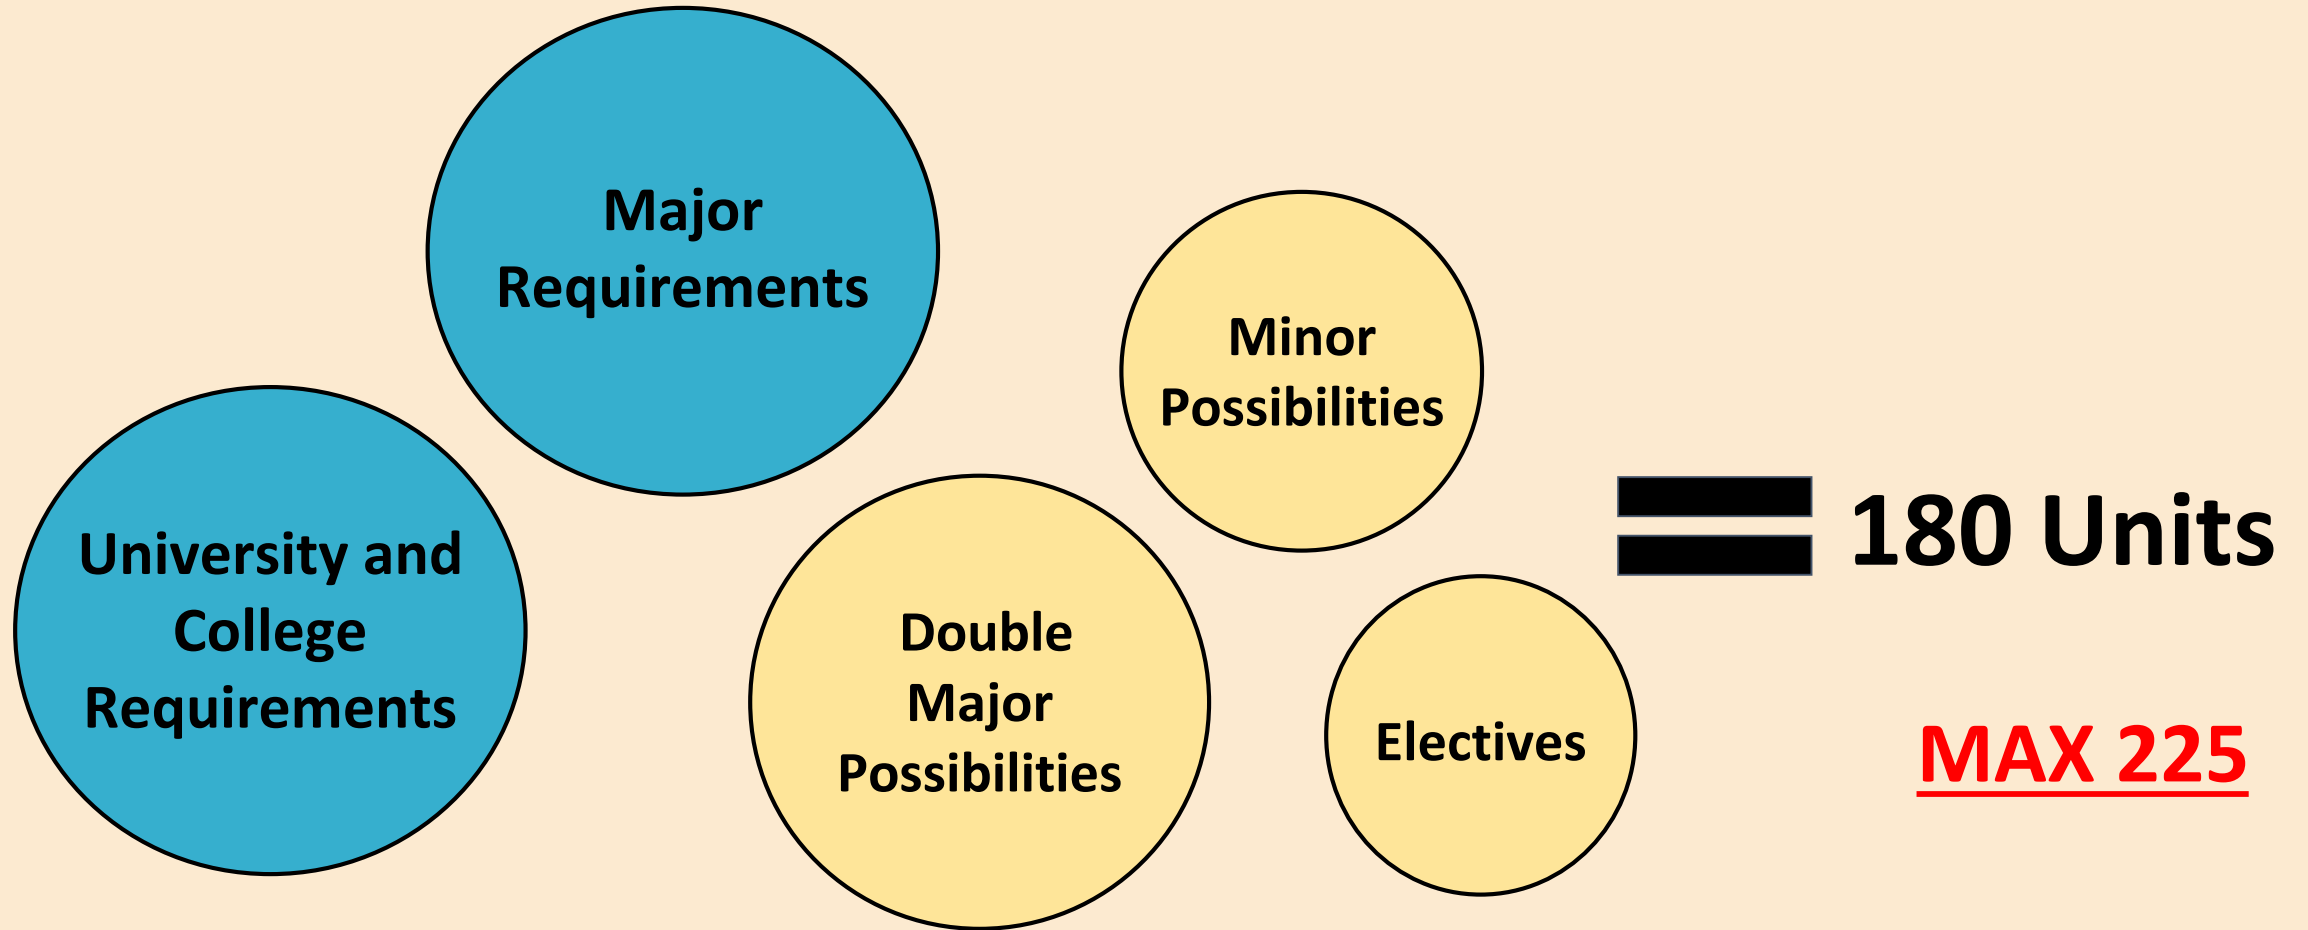

Academic Advising at UC Davis

Advising at UC Davis is decentralized.

- Major Advisors (us!):
 - Major (and minor) requirements & recommendations
 - Help to select major classes (usually 2 per quarter)
 - Minors in our departments
- College Advisors (College of Letters & Science)
 - College and University requirements - e.g. GE & IGETC; upper division and total units; writing requirement; foreign language requirement
 - Permission to drop after the drop deadline

Unit Counts - BIG PICTURE

Helpful Tips

- Lower Division = 0-99
(ex. SPA 021)
- Upper Division = 100-199
(ex. JPN 110)

Check your UC Davis
email daily.

Make use of your instructor
office hours - they are there to help.

Want to change your major or add a second major?
You need to wait until after your first quarter

It is recommended to take
12-16 units a quarter.
12 units is minimum for full-time status.

Don't know who to contact? Contact us - we will point you in the right direction.

Transportation

Bicycles

- Davis is a platinum-level bicycle friendly city, both on and off campus
- More than a third of students, faculty, and staff rely on cycling to campus
- A large system of bike paths allows for fast and efficient routes to and from campus
- There are plenty of bike racks around campus
- The Bike Barn, located next to the Silo, offers a full-service repair shop and rental garage
- Please be aware of cycling laws and regulations when

Unitrans

- UC Davis offers an extensive bus system (Unitrans) that can get you around town from 7am-11pm during the week and 9am-6pm on the weekends
- Davis is one of the the only cities in the US to operate double decker busses in regular service, with the first two vintage London busses purchased in 1968
- Undergraduate students with a valid student ID can ride Unitrans and YoloBus (greater Sacramento area) for free

Walking

- Once on campus, there are many walking paths to get to your classes
- There are also several walking loops throughout campus, just look for the white and blue arrows on the ground
- Campus is centrally located in Davis and students can access the downtown area easily by walking from campus

What Makes Davis Special?

- Bike-friendly roads: 98% of Davis streets
- Davis Farmer's Market: open year round, located at Central Park, just off campus. Local produce, meats, baked good, plants, gifts, live music, and so much more. Open Saturdays 8am-1pm and Wednesdays 3pm-6pm
- UC Davis Arboretum: 100+ acres of demonstration gardens, scientific collections, stream and grassland ecosystem managed for teaching, research, wildlife, and habitat protection. Open 24 hours a day, a great place to study between classes, have a picnic with friends, explore the vast array of landscapes, or just sit and relax
- Central to everywhere: Davis is a day trip away from the coast, the mountains, and six national parks

Get out and explore!
